

ONLINE RESOURCES THAT PROVIDE LISTS OF FUNDING IN THE ARTS:

Actor's Checklist: Funding for Actors and Performing Artists

This website allows artists to search for philanthropic agencies that offer funding for the arts. The majority of the agencies this site focuses on do not have regional or jurisdictional limitations, making them available to anyone. The directory highlights programs in creative writing and performing arts that award money, especially to individual artists.

URL: <http://www.actorschecklist.com/resources/grantmoney.html>

Alliance of Artists Communities

This website is a source for information about a multitude of artists' communities that offer residencies at various locations in the US and around the world.

URL: <http://www.artistcommunities.org/>

American Center for Artists

This website provides listings of private organizations and federal agencies that support the arts.

URL: http://www.americanartists.org/organizations\_and\_support/private.htm

Art Deadlines List

This website provides information on art contests and competitions; art jobs and internships; art scholarships, grants, and fellowships; art festivals; calls for entries/proposals/projects; and other opportunities, in all disciplines, for art students, art teachers, and artists of all ages. It offers both free and paid subscriptions.

URL: <http://artdeadlineslist.com/>

Cranbrook Academy of Art Library's List of Artist Residencies

The Cranbrook Academy of Art Library serves as a resource of visual and written materials to support the research needs of students currently enrolled in the Academy, CAA faculty and staff, and the curatorial staff of the Cranbrook Art Museum. They provide a list of North American artists' residencies.

URL: <http://www.cranbrookart.edu/library/research/residencies.htm>

Foundation Center--Foundation Grants to Individuals Online

This online database offers information about foundation and public charity programs that fund artists, researchers, and other grant-seekers. There is a limited list of funders available for free, and a more extensive directory of Foundation Grants to Individuals is available through the Lawrence Public Library. The Artists Knowledge-Base provides a list of grant resources especially for artists.

URL: <http://foundationcenter.org/findfunders/fundingsources/gtio.html>

URL: <http://grantspace.org/tools/Knowledge-Base/Individual-Grantseekers/Artists>

Funds for Writers

This website provides information on grants, awards, fellowships, and contests for writers.

URL: <http://www.fundsforwriters.com/grants/>

National Association of Latino Arts & Cultures (NALAC)

NALAC identifies funds, fellowships, and other resources for creative people in media, performing arts, visual arts, writing/literary, and other arts.

URL: <http://nalac.org/opportunities/scholarships-grants>

PIVOT (formerly Community of Science) Funding Opportunities Database

University of Kansas faculty and students have free access to this very extensive database from any KU computer. Click on the search box and then type in “creative writing” or a related term in the search field. To refine your search further, choose additional qualifications in the requirements, citizenship, activity location, funding type, and sponsor boxes. Those who are not affiliated with KU do not have access

URL: <http://pivot.cos.com/>

Poets and Writers Magazine, Grants and Awards Database

This database contains an extensive list of grants and awards, deadlines, and state grants of potential interest to writers and poets. Poets & Writers Magazine announces state and national prizes in poetry, fiction, and creative nonfiction. Because of space limitations, it lists only prizes of $1,000 or more, prizes of $500 or more that charge no entry fee, and prestigious non-monetary awards.

URL: http://www.pw.org/grants?apage=\*%&

TransArtists.org

The mission of TransArtists.org is to stimulate and strengthen artists' mobility in the Netherlands and internationally. It combines and shares expertise, and offers tools and services on artist-in-residence programs and related issues.

URL: <http://www.transartists.org/>

ResArtis

Res Artis is an association of over 490 centers, organisations, and individuals in over 70 countries. Each of our members is dedicated to offering artists, curators, and all manner of creative people the essential time and place away from the pressures and habits of every-day life, an experience framed within a unique geographic and cultural context. Those interested in attending a residency can use the information and resources on our website, gaining insights into the profiles of our members and staying informed about their events and application deadlines.

URL: <http://www.resartis.org/en/about/>

WomenArts

This website provides a list of grants, funders, and other resources to help women artists build their skills and achieve their creative goals.

URL: <http://www.womenarts.org/funding-resources/index/>